THE great and important events—Religious, Political, Military—now agitating the nations of the Old World, give to these publications an interest and value they never before possessed. They occupy a middle ground between the hastily written news items, crude speculations, and dying rumors of the newspaper and the ponderous Tome of the historian, written long after the living interest in the facts he records shall have passed away. The progress of the War in the Last occupies a large space in their pages. Every movement is closely criticised, whether of friend or foe, and all short comings carefully pointed out. The letters from the Crimea and the Exile in Blackwood's Magazine, are some of the most popular contributions, give a more intelligible and reliable account of the movements of the belligerents than is elsewhere to be found.
These Periodicals ably represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—Whig, Tory, and Radical, but politics forms only one feature of their elaborate Articles. As Organs of the most profound writers in Science, Literature, Morality and Religion, they stand as they ever have stood, unrivalled in the world of letters, being considered indispensable to the well informed reader, and a welcome visitor to the social circle. To those who wish to be put in possession of the current Literature of the day, throughout the world, it can be completely obtained in no other manner.

TO THE REPUBLICANS OF THE UNITED STATES.

In accordance with what appears to be the general desire of the Republican party, and at the suggestion of a large portion of the Republican press, the Chairmen of the State Republican Committees of Maine, Vermont, Massachusetts, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Wisconsin, hereby invite the Republicans of the Union to meet in informal Convention at Pittsburg, on the 22d February, 1856, for the purpose of perfecting the National Organization, and providing for a National Delegate Convention of the Republican party, at some subsequent day, to nominate candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, to be supported at the election in November, 1856.

The Blighting Effects of Slavery upon the White Population.

George M. Weston, Esq., of this city, who is now at Washington, has contributed an able article to the columns of the New York Tribune, upon the condition and prospects of "The Poor Whites of the South"—wherein he shows by statistics and by the admissions of Southern men themselves, the blighting effects of slavery upon every white community wherein it is domiciliated. The institution of the bane and the curse of the white mechanic and workingman. It reduces him to the level of the slave in the compensation for his labor, and even below him in physical comforts; and causes his children to grow up in ignorance and beggary. There are no independent middle classes in the slave States, as with us. As a general thing, there is no medium between the aristocratic slaveholder and the miserable serf and still more miserable free white man.

It is this blighting and ruinous effect of the system upon the white population, which constitutes one of its most alarming features in a Republican country like ours—because its tendency is eminently anti-Republican and oligarchical—for the benefit of the aristocratic few and the depression of the masses. It is in this view as well as others that the Republican party have adopted as their great and vital principle, opposition to the spread of this pernicious institution, and to its longer existence wherever we have the constitutional power to abolish it. And in this view, opposition to slavery extension is one of the most vital principles to the free white working men of our whole country; for the pernicious effects of slavery upon the wages of the white man's labor, and consequently upon the comforts and means of elevation of the white man's family, are felt all over this Union. The competition of slave labor, and its degrading effects upon other labor are becoming more and more powerful with the rapid increase and extension of the institution, and is felt more and more throughout the entire country, as the slaves are being gradually introduced into manufacturing and mechanical pursuits.

Mr. Weston's article is therefore a timely one in all respects; and we shall, in two or three papers, lay the larger part of it before our readers.

The Poor Whites of the South.

"Be the sun, the dangers and evils of Slavery all our own. We exempt, with one accord, them with us."
Letters of Gov. Hammond of S. C. to Thos. Clarkson.

To the Editor of the N. Y. Tribune.

SIR:—The attitude of slaveholders in the Slave States of this Union, as ascertained by the census returns of 1850, was three hundred and forty-seven thousand five hundred and twenty-five. An average of five persons and seven-tenths to a family, as assumed by the Superintendent of the census, would give 1,980,894 as the number of persons interested as slaveholders in their own right or by family reunion. The whole number of whites in the slaveholding States being 6,222,418, the slaveholding proportion is a fraction short of 32 per cent.

* * * * * * *

Considering that the number of 347,525, returned as slaveowners, is subject to some deductions, and considering that of the slaveowners many are females and minors, it is probable that not exceeding one-fifth of the white male adults of the Slave States own slaves.

The non-slaveholding whites of the South, being not less than seven-tenths of the whole number of whites, would seem to be entitled to some inquiry into their actual condition; and especially, as they have no real political weight or consideration in the country, and little opportunity to speak for themselves. I have been for twenty years a reader of Southern newspapers, and a reader and hearer of Congressional debates; but in all that time, I do not recollect ever to have seen or heard these non-slaveholding whites referred to by Southern gentlemen, as constituting any part of what they call "the South." When the rights of the South, or its wrongs, or its policy, or its interests, or its intentions are referred to, reference is always intended to the rights, wrongs, policy, interests and institutions of the three hundred and forty-seven thousand Slaveholders. Nobody gets into Congress from the South but by their direction; nobody speaks at Washington for any Southern interest except theirs. Yet these is, or the South, quite another interest than theirs, embracing from two to three times as many white people; and, as we shall presently see, entitled to the deepest sympathy and consideration, in view of the material, intellectual and moral pervations to which it has been subjected, the degradation to which it has already been reduced, and the still more fearful degradation with which it is threatened by the inevitable operation of existing causes and influences.

From a paper on "Domestic Manufactures in the South and West," published by Mr. Tarver of Missouri in 1847, I make the following extracts:

"The free population of the South may be divided into two classes—the slaveholder and the non-slaveholder. I am not aware that the relative numbers of these two classes have ever been ascertained in any of the States; but I am satisfied that the non-slaveholders far outnumber the slaveholders—perhaps by three to one. In the more Southern portions of this region, the non-slaveholders possess, generally, but very small means, and the land which they possess is almost universally poor, and so sterile that a scanty subsistence is all that can be derived from its cultivation; and the more fertile soil, being in the possession of the slaveholder, must ever remain out of the power of those who have none.

"This state of things is a great drawback, and bears heavily upon and depresses the moral energies of the poorer classes. The acquisition of a respectable position in the scale of wealth appears so difficult that they decline the honorable approach, and many of them settle down into habits of idleness and become the almost passive subjects of all its consequences. And I lament to say that I have observed of late years that an ambition has taken place for this part of the population, which is younger persons of industrious habits, to emigrate to less settled countries, and that, very point of view less respectable than their ancestors."

This picture is distressing and discouraging, in that it is drawn by a native of the South, a citizen of a slaveholding State, and apparently desirous only to present the truth. But it is not so sterile that industry, upon skill, is utterly destitute of reward. The material (cotton) at nearly two cents on the pound cheaper than the New-England establishments. Labor is likewise one hundred per cent cheaper. In the upper parts of the State, the habit of mind is free and that of slave, marking board, nothing board, nothing, and can be obtained from $110 to $120 per annum. It will cost at least twice that sum in New England.—Hence the difference in the cost of female labor, which, of free and slave, is seven eighths.

(Concluded to-morrow.)

FALL FOR A BUILDING.—Yesterday afternoon, (Wednesday,) the roof of the large carriage-house adjoining and connected with the livery stable of Messrs. Munsil & Miller on Central Bridge, was broken in by the weight of the snow upon it, and carried with it the two floorings and one side and one end of the building into the cellar.

It fortunately happened that no person, and only one horse was in the building at the time. The horse escaped uninjured; but there were several sleighs badly smashed.

Only a few minutes before the roof fell in, a man, with a yoke of oxen and a horse, attempted to drive in with a load of wood, but the tongue of his sled came out from the rocker and prevented his entering; when at least inevitably have perished. The building was two stories high and is a complete wreck. The damage is probably fourteen or fifteen hundred dollars, independent of the damage to the sleighs, which is considerable. The carriage-house was made from a stable and an adjoining shed—being thrown into one by taking out one side of the stable. There was not sufficient support given to the roof in place of the posts taken away—and hence the calamity.

BURNED TO ASHES.—On Wednesday evening, Mrs. Josiah Dunn, who resides at the corner of Hammond and Fifth streets, was thoroughly burned by the breaking of a lamp, which she had in her hand. The fluid saturated her dress, and, taking fire, enveloped her in flames. She was alone at the instant, but the cries brought the family to her relief, who extinguished the flames by wrapping her in a quilt. Her bosom, the lower portion of her face, and her hands, were dreadfully burned, and she was yesterday entertained of her life.

We learn that Mrs Dunn's injuries are not so serious as was apprehended, and that there is no danger of a fatal result.

On last Thursday, at Auburn, N. Y., John Price was arraigned before the Oyer and Terminer, for the murder, in September last, in the town of Sterling, of his father, mother and brother. His brother was then deliberately with an ax, and intended to kill another of the family.

Prizes have been very successfully cultivated in Pennsylvania. Among the economists in Bucks county, they have been granted on plans. Mr. Pfeiffer of Indiana, raised prizes in large numbers, and sold them at certain prices, some as high as $5 and $10. He had some of the fruit at the Pennsylvania Agricultural Fair, held at Pittsburg, and sold readily at fifteen a quart.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—We have several communications on hand which will receive attention as soon as we have space.

[For the Daily Whig and Courier.]

I wish to enquire if the Police of our city intend to enforce the laws respecting fast-driving, and sliding upon the side-walks. As it is now, men, women and children have to jump for their lives, to avoid rowdy boys on sleds upon the side walks, and larger rowdies in sleighs in the streets. If the proper authorities will not protect us, we must protect ourselves, and inflict summary punishment on the offenders.

MANY PEDESTRIANS.

We have had occasion to know that the practice among the boys, of sliding on the side-walk, is becoming a dangerous one to pedestrians. We think the police should enforce the laws against it.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier:

FIRE IN EAST BANGOR.—About 11 o'clock on Saturday, 2d inst., a fire broke out in Mr. Moses Whitney's new barn, which was entirely destroyed, together with about thirteen tons of hay, sixty bushels of oats, twenty of wheat, and a quantity of other grain and twelve head of cattle, together with all his farming tools of every description. The building was 60 rods from any other, and so completely on fire when discovered that nothing could be saved from it. Loss estimated at $800. No insurance.

The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary. A young lad has been arrested and examined by Justice Kelly, and for want of bail, has been committed to take his trial at the March term. His name is Moran.

Haynesville, Feb. 4, 1856.

COULDN'T AFFORD SUCH A TRIUMPH TO FREEDOM.—Mr. Greeley in a letter giving an account of the final battle for the Speakership, says:

"It was only night before last that one of our most active men in the House was conversing with two Southern Democrats who urged him to drop Banks and let the House be organized. 'Take anybody else,' they urged, and you may elect him in an hour—even if it be Giddings.' He replied that one candidate was Banks, and we should elect him or nobody. 'We give you your choice,' they rejoined, 'that you can never elect Banks, for we won't let you. We can't help it, but you are so green a triumph as the election of Banks would now be, would light bonfires on every Northern hill and cause salutes to be fired in every Northern city. Anything else you may do, but you shall not elect Banks.'

At the Levee last evening, the President congratulated Mr. Aiken in advance on his election to the Speakership, saying that he knew he would be chosen, and that he might not see him to congratulate him immediately afterward.

EFFECT OF MECHANICAL SKILL.—To show how mechanical skill and labor add to the value of raw materials, the British Quarterly Review gives this instructive calculation:

A bar of iron, valued at $6, worked into horse shoes, is worth $10 50; needles, $355; penknife blades, $3,285; shirt buttons, $23,480; balance springs of watches, $250,000.—Thirty-one pounds of iron have been made into wire yards in length, and of one million miles in length, and of the wire the fabric that a part of it was converted, in lieu of horse hair, into a barrister's wig.

The Torturing and Murder of Mr. Brown by the Missouri Ruffians.

The details of this inhuman murder are thus given:

Mr. Brown was taken by the mob as narrated, while on his way home with several others. He objected to being taken, and thought it better to make a fight for his life on the spot; but his associates urged him to surrender, claiming that they would all be slain. This he finally, but very reluctantly, consented to do, in consideration of saving the lives of his companions, who seemed so unwilling to defend themselves. He and seven others were taken back to Easton, and guarded through Friday night. On Saturday they took Brown and the others, for the purpose of hanging him, having their ropes and implements ready for the work. Some proposed a compromise—that they lynch him, and let him go. This was agreed to, when several persons sprang upon him with hatchets and bowie knives, and commenced stabbing, chopping, beating and kicking him until life was extinct. Shortly after receiving three mortal wounds in his head with hatchets, and numerous other injuries, any of which would probably have caused his death. After lying upon the cold earth for a while, consciousness seemed to return, when he rose and attempted to escape, but he was again felled, beaten, kicked, and dragged to a wagon, which he was forced into like a dead brute, and in this cold condition carried to Dunn's groggery in Salt Creek valley, where his slayers went through the farce of attempting to dress his wounds. Finding this a hopeless case, and human nature beginning to shrink at the accordancy, he was carried to his own home, shred-fourths of a mile distant, and given in charge of his wife.

She interrogated him as to how he had received the injuries, and he responded faintly, though audibly, 'I have been murdered by a gang of cowards, in cold blood, without any cause!" Immediately after, he gave up and expired.

INCREASE IN THE ROAD FARE.—We have to-day reports of the railroad meetings at Worcester, Lowell and Boston on Friday and Saturday. At both of these meetings a subject of increased rates of fare was discussed. At the Worcester meeting a recommendation was passed that the rates on tickets should be increased twenty-five per cent., and on other travel, the rates should be three cents per mile. At the Boston meeting votes were adopted instructing the Directors to increase the price of season tickets fifty per cent., and the rates for transportation of passengers fifty per cent., and also to make a decided general advance on the freight tariff. Free passes are also to be kept within the narrowest possible limits. The roads of railroad men have decidedly upward in this section of the State, as indicated by the votes in the interests of the people.—Boston Journal.

EFFECTS OF THE COLD WEATHER AT THE SOUTH.—A few days ago we read in the New Orleans papers an account of a large fire in that city, the disastrous result of which was attributed to the fact that the fire department was unable to properly do their duty, owing to the intense cold which was prevailing at the time the thermometer being down to the freezing point. Below we give some further evidence of the chilling effect of the weather upon the energies of our Southern friends. The Pensacola, Florida, Democrat, of the 24th ult., says:—

We beg the indulgence of our readers for the meagre appearance of our paper to-day. It is due to the opening of the doors of Æolus' ice house, for the last few days, with its accompanying boreal blasts, and consequent discomfort to every one. It was almost impossible for us to work. The result of such an event, in our vicinity, has been also disastrous to all varieties of vegetation, and many of our orange trees have been very badly dealt by.

The Montgomery, Alabama, Mail, of the 29th ult., contains the following announcement.

Owing to the cold weather, Rev. S. D. Baldwin was unable to fill his appointment to lecture on Monday night, but will be in place the weather will permit.

THE BATTLE FOUGHT AND WON.—Washington, Sunday, Feb. 3. Our "Bleeding Vista" has been fought. The struggle is over at last. There is a North, thank God; and for once it has asserted its right to be a power under the Constitution. We have met the allied forces of Slavery aggression, and National pro-Slavery Americanism," and trimbled, degraded and conquered them. Disgraced and humbled they are! No! That was not our work—they did it for themselves—yet all their ignominy has profited them nothing. Young America is jubilant—Lift up your head old Massachusetts, home of the Pilgrim Fathers, whose glorious associations and illustrious deeds—so bright on the storied scroll of fame—were not sufficient to shield you from insult and reproach because of your devotion to the doctrine that "Freedom is national, and Slavery sectional!" You are vindicated most nobly. Your favored son—the "Watham machinist"—who symbolizes the dignity of labor, a man of the people, understanding all their wants, sharing in all their sympathies, stood amid all their toils, and knowing all their needs, has been elevated by the unsolicited favor of the North to the highest seat in the gift of the nation, the Presidency alone excepted. Cor. N. Y. Daily Times.

A Story of Stuart, the Artist.

The Yankees have become notorious for their question asking propensity, yet sometimes John Bull exhibits so remarkable a development of this trait, that we must conclude that Jonathan and John are at least cousins. A good anecdote is related of Gilbert Stuart, a celebrated American portrait painter, whose replies puzzled the inquisitiveness of his English travelling companions, in their attempts to find out his calling.

On one occasion, Stuart was travelling in a stage-coach, in England, with some gentlemen who were strangers to him, but all of whom were sociable and full of animation. His brilliant conversational powers attracted much attention, and his companions became desirous to know who and what he was. They asked many roundabout questions, to find out his calling or profession. Mr. Stuart answered, with a grave face and serious tone, that he sometime dressed gentlemen's and ladies' hair.

"You are a hair-dresser, then?" remarked one of his companions, inquiringly.

"What!" said he; "do you take me for a barber?"

"I beg your pardon, sir," but I inferred it from what you said. If I mistook you, may I take the liberty to ask what you are, then?"

"Why, I sometimes brush a gentleman's coat or hat, and sometimes adjust a cravat."

"O, you are a valet, then, to some nobleman?"

"A valet! Indeed, sir, I am not. I am not a servant; to be sure, I make coats and waistcoats for gentlemen."

"O, you are a tailor?"

"Tailor! Do I look like a tailor? I assure you I never handled a goose, other than a roasted one."

By this time the passengers were all in a roar; and one of the party exclaimed, "What are you then, sir?"

"I'll tell you," said Stuart. "He assured all I have said is literally true. I dress hair, brush hats and coats, and adjust a cravat, and make coats, waistcoats, and breeches, and likewise boots or shoes, at your service."

"Oho! a boot and shoe maker, after all."

"Guess again, gentlemen. I never handled a boot and shoe but for myown feet, and legs; yet all I have said you is true."

"We may as well give up guessing, then," remarked one of the party.

After checking the laughter, he said to them, very gravely, "Now gentlemen, I will not play the fool with you, but will tell you, upon my honor as a gentleman, bona fide my profession. I get my bread by making faces." He then lowered his countenance, and twisted the lineaments of his visage in a manner such as Samuel Foote or Charles Mathews might have envied.

When his companions, after loud peals of laughter had composed themselves, each took credit to himself for having, all the while suspected that the gentleman belonged to the theatre; and now they all knew it to be such, as a comedian by profession. But to their utter surprise he assured them that he never was on the stage, and very rarely saw the inside of any theatre. His companions now looked at him and at each other with astonishment.

Before parting, Stuart said to his companions, "Gentlemen, you will find that all I have said of my various employments is comprised in these few words: I am a portrait painter. If you will call at John Palmer's, York Buildings, London, I shall be ready and willing to brush your coat or hat, dress your hair to a model, supply you, if in need, with a wig, of any fashion or dimensions, accommodate you with boots or shoes."

On parting with him at the inn, they begged leave to enquire in what part of England he was born. He replied, "I was not born in England, Wales, Ireland, or Scotland." Here was another puzzle for them, and "where then?" was their eager inquiry.

"I was born at Narragansett," was his reply.

"Where's that?"

"Six miles from Pottawcone, and ten miles from Pappoonsuah, and about four miles west of Connecticut, and not far from the spot where the famous battle with the Pequods was fought."

"Is what part of the East Indies is that, sir?" was the response.

"East Indies, my dear sir! it is in the State of Rhode Island, between Massachusetts and the Connecticut River."

This was all Greek to his companions; and he left them to study a new lesson in geography, affording another instance of the ignorance respecting men of genius among persons whose vernacular tongue is the same as that of Bacon, Newton, Locke, Shakespeare, Milton, and Pope.

An Irishman giving his testimony in one of our courts, a few days since, in a row case, said, "Be jabers, the first man I saw coming at me when I got up, was two brickbats."

LEGISLATURE OF MAINE.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 6.

SENATE.—Mr. Farley laid on the table a bill entitled an act to extend the time for filing the location of the Penobscot, Lincoln and Oldtown Railroad, and for building the same.—Referred.

An order came from the House extending the time for the return of orders of notice to the 27th instant. Non-concurred.

The Committee on the Judiciary, reported a bill to establish a Municipal Court in Portland, which was laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

An order came from the House requiring the Committee on Indian Affairs to examine the whole management of the affairs of the Penobscot Indians from 1820 to the present time, was, on motion of Mr. Barnes, laid on the table.

Petitions, &c., referred—Remonstrance of John McClintock and six, against abolishing a term of the State Court in Androscoggin county.

Placed to be enacted—An act to increase the capital stock of the Bangor Gas Light Company.

HOUSE.—On motion of Mr. Duren of Calais,

Ordered, That the Committee on Indian Affairs be directed to inquire into the whole management of the Affairs of the Penobscot tribe of Indians from 1820 to the present time—the right of their agent to lease the lands or shores for a term of years on the islands in the Penobscot river—the mode of his keeping the accounts and settlements with them—how much, and in what way, they are paid the amount appropriated by the State—also, as to the cause of the difficulties existing in the tribe, by which they claim to have two representatives to the Legislature—and whether the accounts of the several agents have been properly audited and settled.

The Committee on Elections, made a further report with regard to the action contested case, transmitting a statement of facts, and the same, on motion of Mr. Durent, was laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

IMPREGNATION OF DREAMS.—There is a new guide to the interpretation of dreams. An English paper thus puts it: "To dream of a millstone round your neck, is a sign of what you may expect if you get an extravagant wife. To see apples in a dream betokens a wedding, because where you find apples you may reasonably expect to find pears. To dream that you are human is a token that you will get into a bobble. When you dream of a coffin, it betokens that you should instantly discontinue lacing her stays tightly, and always go warmly and thickly shod in wet weather. If you dream of a clock it is a token that you will gain credit—that is, a tick. To dream of fire is a sign that if you are wise you will see that the lights in your house are out before you go to bed. To dream that your nose is red at the tip, is an intimation that you had better leave off brandy and water. To dream of walking barefooted denotes a journey that will make you footless."

IMPORTANT FROM MEXICO—ANOTHER REVOLUTION.—The news from Mexico, coming from any other part of the world would be regarded of the highest importance. The government of Comonfort, which is the third that has existed these four months, is in process of rapid decay. A revolution is in the full tide of success. The incoming chief, Senor Haro y Tamariez, proclaims the basis of an imperial government.

This, is an emanation from the church. It presents a most remarkable feature, even in Mexican politics. It looks to the consolidation of the government—to bringing in the political power and taking it subservient to the ecclesiastical.

A CERTAIN CURE

For Salt Rheum, Ring Worm, Scald Head, Pimples, &c.

The subscriber having, in his last season's travels, discovered a certain cure for the Salt Rheum, one which may also be considered a remedy for various other humors, takes this opportunity of informing the citizens of Bangor that he has established an agency in Bangor for the sale of the long known and well established Remedy. Warranted to be the best article in the market for what it is designed.

Holloway's Pills, a certain Cure for determination of Blood to the Head. Ellen Hoyle, one of the most celebrated advocates of temperance in the Union, admits that he suffered more than any one he ever heard of from determination of blood to the head, although he was more abstemious both in eating and drinking, also in taking rest, yet he was so bad at times, the fire in the midst of his most eloquent discourse, he was compelled to leave off addressing his audience, and on several occasions has been carried away from meeting quite overcome. Having seen the good effects of Holloway's Pills in his case, he was induced to give them a trial, and one box down words, they acted like magic. It is forever my wish to see this valuable medicine raising this celebrated medicine, which completely cured him in two months, and he has not had any return of the complaint since. These Pills are wonderfully efficacious in all disorders of the stomach and bowels.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

[From the editor of the Vermont Journal, June 29, 1855]

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY has become one of the established institutions of this country. During the last years Dr. Fowle has been constantly engaged in this life medicine it has been constantly gaining ground on the public confidence. Persons personally known to us have been restored to health by its signal results. We ourselves had no occasion to try its remarkable virtues, but not hesitate, from what we know of the experience of others, to pronounce the Balsam one of the most efficacious remedies for the Asthma and Affections of the Lungs, with which Americans—many of the best of them—are in the habit of using it.

None genuine unless signed I. BUTTS on the wrapper.

A TALE OF PURITAN TIMES.

12 mo. cloth. Price $1.25.

A more charming tale has rarely made its appearance to any country. The scene is laid in Boston, at the time of the religious persecution of the Quakers by the Puritans, and is undoubtedly one of the most interesting tales we have ever read. We do not require any such testimonials as that of Whittier to assure us that the author is well versed in the history of the times she writes about. The descriptions are graphic, and the characters are drawn with a master hand. The plot is well laid, and the interest is kept up to the last page. The conscientiousness of a cruel intolerance on the one hand, and the remembrance of wrong on the other, does not seem to have been forgotten by the descendants, and yet, strange to say, each in the minds of their descendants, and yet, strange to say, each in the minds of their descendants, and yet, strange to say, each in the minds of their

TO THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER

Accident to General Cass.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.

Gen. Cass fell down the steps outside the Patent Office this morning, breaking one of his arms. He was taken to the National Hotel where it was ascertained that he had a deep cut in his temple, from which blood was flowing freely, and it was feared that the skull was fractured, as he was entirely insensible. He has retired a little and recognizes his friends.

SECOND DESPATCH.

Physicians think Cass' injuries are not serious, though his frame was jarred by the fall.

Mr. Marcy has declined to recognize Parker H. French as Minister from Nicaragua, on the same grounds that influenced his former refusal.

FIRE.—We learn that the blacksmith shop of Mr. Thomas Crooker in Monson, was entirely destroyed by fire on Sunday the 20th ult.—All the appurtenances belonging to the shop, together with farming utensils, several thousand of shingles, &c., were consumed. Estimated loss about $2000; no insurance.—Piscataquis Observer.

INJURIES OF MR. FORNEY.—Washington, Feb. 7. Mr. Forney is dangerously ill with inflamation of the bowels; his illness is supposed to have been produced by the excitement and over exertion incident upon the discharge of his late duties as Clerk of the House.

THE NEW STEAM FRIGATE MERRIMAC.—The frigate Merrimac hauled into the stream on Tuesday, and is now all ready for sea. She will sail on her trial trip for Norfolk on the 15th inst., under the command of Commodore Gregory.—Boston Chronicle, 7th.

A "WILD CAT" KILLED.—The Ellsworth American says that a wild cat came into the barn of Comfort Thomas on Eden one night last week and killed three geese. A trap was set the following night and the cat was caught. He measured more than three feet in length, and stood seventeen inches high.

THE EXPECTED STEAMERS.—The arrival of the steamship Pacific, at New York, has been anxiously looked for since Monday evening, having sailed, as was supposed, agreeably to announcement, on the 23d ult. But the Boston Daily Advertiser has discovered an advertising in the Liverpool Mercury (brought by the steamship Arabia) postponing her departure to the 30th ult., so she is not yet due.

The mammoth new steamship Persia, of the Cunard line, which doubtless sailed on the 26th, is now so her 12th day, and is hourly expected. Her intelligence will be seven days later than that brought by the Arabia, and is awaited with much interest.

The steamship Union which sailed from Havre on the 16th ult., and put in at Halifax for coal, Friday evening the 1st inst., put in at Newport; again on Thursday's "shoal of coal," and arrived off Sandy Hook the same evening.

The steamship Belgique, of the new line between New York and Antwerp, left Plymouth, England, on the 11th ult., 28 days ago. Her trip from Antwerp to Southampton was not very successful, and possibly she met with some mishap after leaving Plymouth, which induced her to put back to port.

Sch Challenge, Malloe, from Eastport for Baltimore, with a cargo of fish and palings, while working into Cross Island harbor, mouth of Machias river, was thrown on Berry Ledge, on the night of 30th, and filled. She was got off 1st inst after throwing over deck load, and taken into the harbor.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7. The Tribune's correspondent telegraphs: Mr. Buchanan's letters by the Arabia represent the state of feeling in the British ministry as very sensitive on our relations. He had received the request for Mr. Crampton's recall four hours before the sailing of the steamer, but had not presented it up to that time, consequently no intelligence in received of its effect. Mr. Buchanan was informed, however, that a positive demand was dispatched of his probable course; there on instructions, and had doubtless sounded Lord Clarendon. Mr. Buchanan thinks there is reasonable ground for expecting peace on the propositions presented to Russia, but our other Ministers do not express the same confidence or hope. The present plan is regarded by them as means of preparation by Russia.

The Herald's correspondent on board the U. S. Ship Savannah, written on the 13th Dec. of Rio Janeiro, states that during the late disturbances in Montevideo an American marine force was landed from the ships Germantown and Bainbridge, in order to protect the lives and property of our citizens. The difficulties Brazil and Paraguay were not settled, but Don Pedro was anxious for a fight, if the troubles could not be amicably settled. At Rio the weather was warm, health of the port good.

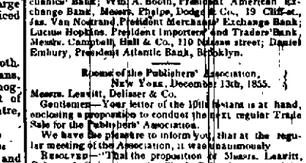
LAMPS and CANS.



HAVING purchased the Patent right for the State of Maine for the above Lamps, I am now prepared to offer them to purchasers in every variety, adapted to the use of Parlors, Churches, Stores, Factories, Vessels, Steamboats and Railroads.

These Lamps are constructed on scientific and philosophical principles, and are the only ones upon the market as explosives from Camphene and Burning Fluids, being made of the most durible material, not subject to accident from breakage or corrosion—will burn freely without smoke, giving an equal and steady light, (the nearest to gas ever produced.)

The above Lamps have proved, after three years trial, to be the best Lamps in use, giving universal satisfaction, and proving perfectly safe.

These Lamps will be sold at wholesale or retail as low as the ordinary Camphene and Fluid Lamp, by J. S. RICKER, 16 Main Street, Bangor, Me., dealer in Lamps, Chims, Glass, and Crockery Ware.

The Great European Cough Remedy.

Important to the Consumptive and the Public generally. The celebrated

Universal Cough Mixture

IS a safe and effectual Remedy for Coughs of ever, description, whether in children or adults, of recent or long standing.

PREPARED ONLY BY

REV. WALTER CLARKE,

Sole Proprietor, Cornwallville, Maine.

Within the last twelve months thousands of bottles of this Cough Mixture have been sold in the State of Maine alone, and everywhere its extraordinary power in relieving and curing diseases of the Chest and Lungs, is gratefully acknowledged, and especially in cases of obstinate and long standing Coughs, it quickly allays the unpleasant sensation in the throat which excites coughing, it promotes free and easy expectoration, and by removing the tickling cause of the cough, it frequently enables the sufferer to enjoy natural and refreshing sleep, which for weeks had been deprived of that blessing.

Sold at trial bottle, 25 cents each, large bottles, each containing the quantity of four small ones, 75 cents each.

Extract of a letter from Daniel Adams, Esq., of Boothbam, Maine

Bangor, Jan. 17th, 1855.

To Rev Walter Clark Dear Sir—The bottle of Cough Mixture which I received of you at Topsham had the desired effect on my wife She has been afflicted with a cough for two years—it has it entirely removed it.

From Rev. Isaac Hoot, Lewiston Falls.

Rev. Clark—Dear Sir—By letting a few of your Universal Coughing Mixture which you left with me, I have had several applications to me for it. I have heard from all that have been perfectly satisfied with the benefit which it exercises in curing a cough of long standing, and even the inflammation of the chest and shortness of breath which arises from it. One man who had taken two bottles was so much relieved from his cough that he said he thought it was worth a dollar a bottle, and before he had no cough—I have myself found great benefit from its use, and I would, and cannot but recommend it to the public.

Yours truly, ISAIAH DAVIS.

From Mr. Fletcher Clay, Convert for North Dixmont, Maine.

Dear Sir—A remedy which most ordinarily cures have been effected by your Universal Cough Mixture in this place. Several who had nights and days a severe and short cough are entirely relieved by one bottle without requiring any more, and others who have been troubled with Bronchial affections are speedily cured by the Universal Cough Mixture.

From Mrs. Hubbard, Thorndike, Me

Feb. 1, 1854.

To Rev. Walter Clark, Dear Sir—Universal Cough Mixture I have used one bottle of your Universal Cough Mixture for a distressing cough in my throat, and I feel perfectly relieved. I have also used it in my family in the case of several people who, without obtaining the least relief, happily found your Universal Cough Mixture well recommended to me. In short a bottle, which I began to take according to directions on the label, by which in a few days I was entirely cured.

HELMBOLD'S GENUINE PREPARATIONS.

HELMBOLD'S
HIGHLY CONCENTRATED
Compound Fluid Extract Buchu

IS A CERTAIN, SAFE, AND EFFECTUAL REMEDY

For Diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Weakness, Seminal Diseases, Obstructions, Female Complaints, and all Diseases of the Sexual Organs, whether in MALE OR FEMALE, from whatever cause they may have originated, and

No Matter of How Long Standing.

This popular and special remedy is now offered to the afflicted, and guaranteed to cure all the above complaints. It searches out the very roots of the diseases, driving out all the diseased fluids of the body, thus removing the cause and rendering the cure

Certain and Permanent.

This medicine allays pain and inflammation, which other remedies invariably cause, and can be taken with less trouble and expense to patients. This infallible remedy has saved thousands upon thousands from the hands of

Merciless Quacks,

if not from premature graves. In cases of infection, the Compound Fluid Extract Buchu is the only article worthy of the least confidence of the afflicted in performing

SAFE CURES.

It contains no narcotic, mercury, or other injurious drug; but is a purely VEGETABLE COMPOSITION. It is very agreeable to the taste, creates no perceptible odor, and may be taken by persons of either sex without change from business or medical advice, as plain directions for use accompany the medicine. Reader, if you have any of the above complaints, do not neglect them, Delays are Dangerous.

With this medicine you can cure yourself, and thus prevent all exposure.

Truth must and will prevail.

This medicine speedily and effectually cures the most virulent form of secret diseases, and eradicates every particle of infectious matter from the patient to a perfect state of Health and Purity.—And as a medicine which must benefit everybody, from the simple, delicate to the confined and despairing invalid, no equal is to be found; it acting both as a Cure and Preventive of any of the above ailments

HELMBOLD'S
HIGHLY CONCENTRATED
Compound Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla,

FOR

Purifying the Blood, removing all diseases arising from Errors of Mercury, exposure and Impurities in the Blood, whether Constitutional or arising from an impure state of the Blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ulcerations of the Throat and Legs, Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Tetter, Pimples on the Face, and all scaly Eruptions of the Skin.

It is gratifying to the proprietor of these medicines to be able to state that it is now nearly three years since they were first introduced, during which time they have been extensively used in various parts of the United States, and have given to patient and practitioner the highest degree of satisfaction in the various cases in which they have been employed, whether in town, country, hospital, or private practice, they have invariably given the most decided and unequivocal satisfaction, and produced the most salutary and beneficial effects. Numerous letters have been received from the most distinguished physicians in the country, and from the professors of several medical colleges, recommending in the highest terms the value of these medicines and their superiority over all other preparations for such complaints as the proprietor recommends. Numerous preparations of Sarsaparilla and Buchu, and the modes of preparing them have been given all of which, of course will differ according to the mode of preparation which each individual may adopt.

These medicines require considerable care in the preparation, and the employment of different menstruums in the decoction or tincture, &c., &c., are matters, and in consequence are most frequently improperly made, and not unfrequently much impaired, if not rendered totally inert, by the injudicious and unskilful management of those unacquainted with pharmaceutical preparations. It is, therefore, of the highest consideration and importance to the afflicted, and to the community, that there should be standard preparations of uniform strength and possessing the most advantages. To effect this, and obviate the evil alluded to, I have made a number of experiments to ascertain the most effectual mode of extracting the curative qualities of the Sarsaparilla, and the Buchu, also to convert the ideal soluble form for their exhibition. The experiments have resulted most favorably, and it is with much pleasure I now offer to the public and the faculty my Compound Fluid Extracts, which contain all the virtues of the articles they are respectively said to be made from in a highly concentrated form, and are the most active preparations which can be made. Two table spoonfuls of the Extract Sarsaparilla added to a pint of water is equal to the Lisbon Diet drink, and one bottle fully equals in strength a gallon of Syrup Sarsaparilla or decoction, as usually made.

TESTIMONY FROM MAINE

Capt. Daniel Abbott, Hiram, Oxford, Maine, July 10, 1854, says "I was taken sick one year ago last April, upon my passage from Havana to Charleston, S.C. At the latter place I took medicine and procured a physician, but for ten days could obtain no relief, no sleep or appetite. At last taking with a newspaper having your advertisement of Hoofland's German Bitters" in it, I sent for some immediately. This was about 10 o'clock, A. M. o'clock I took the first dose, and another at 6 o'clock. The effect was so rapid on me that I had a good appetite for supper, and rested well that night, and the next day found me a well man. I have not been without your medicine since, having been sailing between Baltimore, Charleston, and the West India Islands ever since. I have now given up going to sea and reside in this place, where you should have an agency, as you could sell large quantities of it."

Jos. B. Hall & Co., Presque Isle, Aroostook Co., Maine, April 24, 1854, say "We herewith send you a certificate of a cure performed by the use of only one bottle of the German Bitters. We think Mr. Clark to be a man of veracity, and have no doubt of the truth of his story."

Messrs. Jos. B. Hall & Co.—Gentlemen—In answer to your inquiries I will state that my daughter aged about 16 years, has been complaining of a pain in her side for six or seven years, and about the first of January last was taken down and confined to her bed. That pain in her side was very severe, besides being troubled with pains between her shoulders and in her breast. From reading a number of cures performed by Hoofland's German Bitters, I was induced to try them in her case, and sent to your store and purchased one bottle. She has taken it but a few days when she began to improve, and now, after taking only one bottle, she is enjoying better health than she has for years.—She feels no pain in her side or in any part of her body, or attributes her cure entirely to the German Bitters.

SOLOMON BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

[From the present Commissioner.]

Aroostook, Me., Jan. 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules and practice of the office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

Dr. Ira Warren's Compound of Pure Cod Liver Oil, Lime & Sugar of Milk.

The great remedy in Consumption is now offered to the public. It corrects a bad state of the blood, which is the cause of this disease, by creating a healthy circulation, resulting in the formation of sound tissue, instead of tubercular matter, which is the cause of the disease. The Sugar of Milk, which is the principal ingredient in breast milk, is the same great remedy for Consumption in children as Cod Liver Oil is in the adult, and the animal would not thrive on cow's milk without it.
